

SUCCESS STORIES

Legal Candidate

It is important to understand that in a real low point in my current role, the first person I decided to call was Charlotte to chat through next steps.

I am in the twilight of my career and I needed someone to understand the environment I was working in and what I wanted from my next move.

Charlotte has been amazing. She listened, provided really rounded advice in what has been an unexpectedly stressful time.

The terms of my move negotiated by Charlotte have exceeded what I expected and she has always been an amazing sounding board when I have needed to talk through my exit.

In short, Charlotte has been a huge support and her advice has been invaluable in seeing me through this difficult time.

She is a credit to Cathedral and I would never hesitate to recommend her.
